Re: Open Meeting Law Complaint from February 19, 2026

Dear Mr. Friedman,

On February 19, 2026, you filed an Open Meeting Law complaint with the Malden City Council. Your complaint alleges that City Council “refuses to release executive session meeting minutes without redactions where they posses[s] no legal justification to continue to withhold and/or redact them.” Exhibit 1, Open Meeting Law Complaint. Specifically, you request release of “[a]ll records from the preparation of, the execution of, and deliberations and discussions in open and executive sessions . . . without redactions for the requested dates, February 3, 2026.” Id.

Upon investigating your complaint, we find that no Open Meeting Law violation occurred.

Facts

On February 3, 2026, the City Council voted to go into Executive Session with legal counsel “in accordance with Exemption Seven [of the Open Meeting Law] in order to act on the periodic review of the Executive Session minutes listed herein to determine if release of records is appropriate at this time.” See Exhibit 2, February 3 City Council Meeting Minutes, at 1. The Executive Session minutes under review were from September 30, 2025, and January 20, 2026. Id. Those sessions involved strategic discussions about ongoing litigation in the Tufts v. City of Malden matter.

On February 9, 2026, you sent an email to the City Clerk and City Council President requesting, under the Open Meeting Law, G. L. c. 30A, § 22, any notes, recordings, minutes, documents, or exhibits from the regular and executive sessions from the February 3rd meeting. Exhibit 1, 4-5.

The City Clerk responded in an email on February 19th that the City Council voted, in a February 17th Executive Session, to release the February 3rd Executive Session minutes “whole and unredacted upon the court’s acceptance of the proposed settlement agreement between Tufts Construction and the City of Malden.” Exhibit 1, 4.

As of March 4, 2026, the Tufts matter is still pending on the Court’s docket, and no Agreement for Judgment or Stipulation of Dismissal has yet been filed and accepted by the Court. Exhibit 3, Docket.

Analysis

The Open Meeting Law allows public bodies to “meet in executive session . . . [t]o discuss strategy with respect to collective bargaining or litigation if an open meeting may have a detrimental effect on the bargaining or litigating position of the public body and the chair so declares.” G. L. c. 30A, § 21(a)(3).

Public bodies must also “maintain accurate minutes of all meetings, including executive sessions.” Id. at § 22(a). These minutes “may be withheld from disclosure to the public in their entirety under subclause (a) of clause Twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4, as long as publication may defeat the lawful purposes of the executive session, but no longer.” Id. at § 22(f). However, executive session minutes “shall be disclosed . . . [w]hen the purpose for which a valid executive session was held has been served.” Id.<sup>1</sup>

Here, you allege that the City Council violated the Open Meeting Law by failing to produce the Executive Session meeting minutes from February 3rd. As grounds, you state that publication of the minutes would not defeat the purpose of the executive sessions because (1) the underlying case was settled on the record and (2) City Council discussed the executive sessions on the record during the January 27th open session.

However, as we discussed in responding to your Open Meeting Law complaint from February 3, 2025 — which is based on the exact argument you raise here — release of Executive Session minutes that pertain to the Tufts case would “defeat the lawful purposes of the executive session[s]” because the Tufts case is ongoing. As of March 4, 2026, the case is open on the Court’s docket and the Court has not accepted an Agreement for Judgment or Stipulation of Dismissal. So long as that is the case, any request for minutes from Executive Sessions that pertain to the Tufts case, including the February 3rd Executive Session, is premature.

Conclusion

For the reasons stated, the City Council’s decision not to release Executive Session minutes from the February 3rd, 2026, meeting abides by the Open Meeting Law.

OPEN MEETING LAW COMPLAINT FORM

Instructions for completing the Open Meeting Law Complaint Form

The Attorney General's Division of Open Government interprets and enforces the Open Meeting Law, Chapter 30A of the Massachusetts General Laws, Sections 18-25. Below is the procedure for filing and responding to an Open Meeting Law complaint.

Instructions for filing a complaint:

- o Fill out the attached two-page form completely. Sign and date the second page. File the complaint with the public body within 30 days of the alleged violation. If the violation was not reasonably discoverable at the time it occurred, you must file the complaint within 30 days of the date the violation was reasonably discoverable. A violation that occurs during an open session of a meeting is reasonably discoverable on the date of the meeting.
- o To file the complaint:
  - o For a local or municipal public body, you must submit a copy of the complaint to the chair of the public body AND to the municipal clerk.
  - o For all other public bodies, you must submit a copy of the complaint to the chair of the public body.
  - o Complaints may be filed by mail, by email, or by hand. Please retain a copy for your records.
- o If the public body does not respond within 14 business days and does not request an extension to respond, contact the Division for further assistance.

Instructions for a public body that receives a complaint:

- o The chair must disseminate the complaint to the members of the public body.
- o The public body must meet to review the complaint within 14 business days (usually 20-22 calendar days).
- o After review, but within 14 business days, the public body must respond to the complaint in writing and must send the complainant a response and a description of any action the public body has taken to address the allegations in the complaint. At the same time, the body must send the Attorney General a copy of the complaint and a copy of the response. The public body may delegate this responsibility to an individual member of the public body, its counsel, or a staff member, but only after the public body has met to review the complaint.
- o If a public body requires more time to review the complaint and respond, it may request an extension of time for good cause by contacting the Division of Open Government.

Once the public body has responded to the complaint:

- o If you are not satisfied with the public body's response to your complaint, you may file a copy of the complaint with the Division by mail, by email, or by hand, but only once you have waited for 30 days after filing the complaint with the public body. Mail may be sent to: The Division of Open Government, Office of the Attorney General, One Ashburton Place - 20th Floor, Boston, MA 02108. Emails may be sent to: openmeeting@state.ma.us.
- o When you file your complaint with the Division, please include the complaint form and all documentation relevant to the alleged violation. You may wish to attach a cover letter explaining why the public body's response does not adequately address your complaint.
- o The Division will not review complaints filed with us more than 90 days after the violation, unless we granted an extension to the public body or you can demonstrate good cause for the delay.

If you have questions concerning the Open Meeting Law complaint process, we encourage you to contact the Division of Open Government by phone at (617) 963-2540 or by email at openmeeting@state.ma.us.

Bruce,

Please accept this email as response to your request for executive session minutes from February 3, 2026.

Communication: During the meeting of February 17, 2026, the Council voted by a 10-1 roll call vote to enter into Executive Session with legal counsel for the City, in accordance with Exemption Seven Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 30A Section 21(a)(7), to comply with, or act under the authority of, any general or special law or federal grant-in-aid requirements, in order to act on the periodic review of those executive session minutes listed herein to determine if release of records is appropriate at this time.

February 3, 2026, 77-26

A motion was made by Councillor Sica, seconded by Councillor O'Malley, to release the February 3, 2026 Executive Session minutes whole and unredacted upon the court's acceptance of the proposed settlement agreement between Tufts Construction and the City of Malden. The motion passed by a unanimous roll call vote.

Once the agreement is accepted, the released minutes will be available at the following link: <https://cityofmalden.legistar.com/Legislation.aspx> using the legislation tab to search the above noted paper number.

Thank you,
Carol Ann

Good evening,

Please accept this email as acknowledgement and response to your request for minutes from the executive session of February 3, 2026.

The ES minutes have not been released for public review.

Under the provisions of MGL c. 30A s. 22(g)(2) the Council will have to meet to perform a review of these records to fulfill your request. The date of that review is February 17.

The draft minutes from the regular council session of February 3 are not yet complete and will be posted for council review on the agenda of February 24, after which time, they will be posted on www.cityofmalden.org/agendacenter.

Thank you,
Carol Ann

SUPERIOR COURT
Civil No. 2181CV01248

PETER TUFTS and TUFTS CONSTRUCTION, INC.

v.

CITY OF MALDEN and YEM LIP

ORDER FOR ENTRY OF DISMISSAL NISI

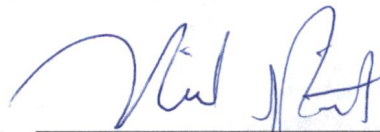

The above-captioned action came before the Court for the first day of trial and was thereupon reported to be resolved, counsel of record informing the Assistant Clerk that the parties had agreed upon all material terms of a binding settlement. Accordingly, the parties are directed to file an Agreement for Judgment or Stipulation of Dismissal in the Clerk's Office no later than February 19, 2026.

If no Agreement for Judgment or Stipulation of Dismissal is filed by said date, the Clerk is hereby directed to prepare, sign and enter a Judgment dismissing the action, and all claims thereof and related thereto, without prejudice and without statutory costs.

The Court may, in its discretion, enlarge the nisi period. Barring unusual circumstances beyond the control of the parties, however, this case will not be returned to the active trial list. Failing the timely filing of an Agreement for Judgment or Stipulation of Dismissal, the parties are free to enforce their settlement agreement either in this Court by way of motion during the nisi period, or in a separately filed action for breach of contract.

5 THE CLERK: We're on the record, and for the
6 record, this case called for trial, Middlesex Superior
7 Court Civil Action Number 2021-1248, Peter Tufts, Tufts
8 Construction, Incorporated, Plaintiff v. the City of 9 Malden and Yem Lip, Defendants.

10 Counsel, would you identify yourselves for the 11 Court and the record, please?

12 MR. KUZMA: Good morning, Your Honor.

13 Stephen Kuzma for Tufts Construction, Incorporated.

14 MS. MINCHOFF: Good morning, Judge.

15 India Minchoff, also on behalf of plaintiffs.

16 MR. SAMEE: Good morning, Your Honor.

17 Zaheer Samee for the defendants.

18 MR. BLAKE: Good morning, Your Honor.

19 Jeff Blake for the defendants.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning, everyone.
21

22 SETTLEMENT HEARING
23

24 THE COURT: So, we were here to impanel. I'm told
25 you've all reached a resolution, am I right?

1 MR. KUZMA: We have, Your Honor.

2 MS. MINCHOFF: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So, what we're going to do is,
4 I will issue a NISI order. How much time do you need
5 to document whatever you need to document and get a
6 Stipulation of Dismissal or an Agreement for Judgment
7 on the file?

8 MS. MINCHOFF: Thirty days.

9 THE COURT: Thirty days? Okay. That takes us
10 to February 19th. So, what I'll do is, I use a pretty
11 standard order, I think it -- well, let me ask counsel.

12 Have both sides -- well, all sides, I guess,
13 reached agreement on all of the material terms of a
14 settlement?

15 MR. KUZMA: We have, Your Honor, and pursuant 16 to emails that were agreed to yesterday, as well as 17 an email this morning, we have.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So, you have emails to document
19 the agreement on the material terms.

20 Counsel for the defendants agree?

21 MR. BLAKE: I believe that's correct, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Okay. And this will resolve all
23 claims, all parties, case will be done, yes?

24 MS. MINCHOFF: Yes.

25 MR. KUZMA: That's the intent.

1 THE COURT: Well, we're past intent. I'm looking
2 for confirmation --

3 MR. KUZMA: Yes.

4 THE COURT: -- that you've reached agreement, yes?

5 MR. KUZMA: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So, my order will
7 specify that if we don't reach -- if we don't receive
8 an Agreement for Judgment or a Stipulation of Dismissal
9 by February 19th, the Clerk is going to go ahead and 10 enter judgment dismissing the case, unless you've
11 requested an extension and I've granted it, okay,
12 just so you know.

13 And barring incredibly unusual circumstances
14 beyond your control, which is a high bar to clear,
15 we're not going to be returning this case to the 16 active trial list. So, I'm treating this matter as 17 settled, a NISI order will issue.

18 I appreciate your efforts over the weekend.
19 I think this was a case that could and should be 20 settled, so I'm glad that you've achieved that.
21 Thank you.

22 Anything else to take up while you're all here?

23 MS. MINCHOFF: No, Judge.

24 THE COURT: No?

25 MR. KUZMA: No, thank you, Your Honor.

1 MS. MINCHOFF: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Okay. All right, thank you, counsel.

3 MR. BLAKE: Thank you, Judge.

	Michael J. Pineault Associate Justice of the Superior Court
01/21/2026	ORDER: ORDER FOR ENTRY OF DISMISSAL NISI The above-captioned action came before the Court for the first day of trial and was thereupon reported to be resolved, counsel of record informing the Assistant Clerk that the parties had agreed upon all material terms of a binding settlement. Accordingly, the parties are directed to file an Agreement for Judgment or Stipulation of Dismissal in the Clerk's Office no later than February 19, 2026. If no Agreement for Judgment or Stipulation of Dismissal is filed by said date, the Clerk is hereby directed to prepare, sign and enter a Judgment dismissing the action, and all claims thereof and related thereto, without prejudice and without statutory costs. The Court may, in its discretion, enlarge the nisi period. Barring unusual circumstances beyond the control of the parties, however, this case will not be returned to the active trial list. Failing the timely filing of an Agreement for Judgment or Stipulation of Dismissal, the parties are free to enforce their settlement agreement either in this Court by way of motion during the nisi period, or in a separately filed action for breach of contract. SO ORDERED. Dated: January 20, 2026 Michael J.
