Councillor Linehan discussed the confirmation process which involves a conversation with each candidate, followed by a vote to refer the appointments back to the full council for final confirmation. This ensures that the appointments are thoroughly vetted before being finalized.

Madelein has been a resident for about 5 years and has worked on the local level in Cambridge. She has experience in community issues, housing, and the intersection between local and statewide issues, which she aims to bring to Malden. Madelein expressed her interest in serving on the Human Rights and Fair Housing Commission to bring her advocacy and skill set to Malden. She wants to contribute to community issues and housing, leveraging her experience to benefit the city. She has worked on immigration and transgender law, and has participated in two meetings of the commission. She has not yet voted on anything but has been involved in outreach and idea generation. Madelein proposed ideas to increase awareness of the commission and improve access and outreach. She emphasized the need for better communication and engagement with residents to ensure they are aware of the commission's existence and how to reach out for support.

A motion was made by Councillor Taylor, seconded by Councillor Colon Hayes, that the Appointment be recommended favorably to the City Council. The motion carried by a unanimous vote.

445-24

Mayoral Appointment: Kathryn Doyle, 45 Webber Street, Unit 1, Malden, as member of the Disability Commission, said term to commence upon confirmation by the City Council, and expire March 15, 2027.
