

City Council Proclamation Honoring Mai Du's Exemplary Community Service to Malden

Whereas, Mai Du has had an instrumental role in multiple community actions that have helped keep Maldonians safe and cope with the impacts of the COVID-19 Pandemic including:

- Acquiring thousands of face masks early in the Pandemic and distributing them to health centers, Malden Housing maintenance staff and volunteer groups to protect front-line workers and others who would not otherwise had access to such protective equipment;
- Arranging for distribution of hot meals to residents in need;
- Offering space at her business, Wah Lum Kung Fu, as a temporary warehouse for the Malden Neighbor Helping Neighbor organization; and
- Allowing murals to be painted at her business to help uplift the community during a difficult time.

Therefore, Council President Jadeane Sica and the entire City Council of Malden do on this 22nd Day of December in the year 2020 hereby honor Mai Du for her exemplary service to Malden and her generous and creative spirit that has helped hundreds of Malden resident cope with and survive the Pandemic.
